

Top spa specialists converge at Hotel Missoni, Kuwait

(0 votes, average 0 out of 5)

The spa world knows international practitioner names such as Katrina Valente, David Mioduski & Shivani Adalja, and now residents of Kuwait will be able to sample an array of spa treatments and services when these world famous practitioners visit Six Senses Spa at Hotel Missoni Kuwait until the end of the year (2011).

David Mioduski, is an international wellness consultant and Doctor of Oriental Medicine, specializing in Traditional Chinese Medicine. He teaches self-empowerment and healing techniques and has helped thousands of people find solutions for their health problems without the use of pharmaceuticals or surgery. David will be in the spa from 26 November until 3rd December 2011.

Holistic aesthetician, Katrina Valente has devoted her life to health and wellness and has been recognized as one of the World's Top Four Facialists. She is qualified in aromatherapy, reflexology, crystal healing, colour therapy, NLP Hypnosis and timeline therapy and more. Anti-aging was always her passion, but having learned many different modalities she decided to offer a different kind of facial treatment; one that incorporated crystals, colour therapy and reflexology, giving results that tantalize your mind, body, and spirit. Katrina will be in the spa between 19th and 26th of November.

In December, Shivani Adalja who is regarded as one of the leading new age wellbeing consultants in the Middle East and the Gulf peninsula will be at the spa for a limited time only between 11th and 15th December. She was born with ability to see colours, aura and energy fields. Her spiritual journey began 15 years ago when she gave up her lucrative job with Cathay Pacific Airways to pursue her spiritual goals. She lived in the Himalayan foothills for two years sharpening her skills and intuition. Her unique abilities and gifts have seen her travel the world and help thousands of people across the globe.

Six Senses Spa at Hotel Missoni Kuwait Spa Director Patrick Taffin d'Heursel said, "This is such a wonderful opportunity for the community of Kuwait to experience treatments from the worlds most experienced and regarded holistic practitioners. We are very excited to welcome these three practitioners to the spa as part of our visiting practitioners. We will be sure to let Kuwait's residents know when more international visitors are confirmed."